

Preliminary work is being done in the attic of the Chemistry Annex above WNTC on a new production studio for the Inter-College Radio Network. The new facilities, purchased on a special arrangement between the network and the Student Council, will allow the ICRN to greatly expand their production of local programs.